RED CROSS WINNING IN FIGHT FOR HEALTH

Better, Stronger Citizenry Now Emerging Out of Work in United States.

The American Red Cross as an evangelist of better health has looked sion of one side of his face. its problem square in the face. How it accepted the task revealed to it in the nation's physical condition as brought out during the World War, plore the result of the election. and conscientiously applied its activities to correction forms a vivid chapter in the forthcoming annual report. a basic work for the Red Cross. In its jurity. public health nursing service, in instruction in home hygiene and care of the sick, nutrition classes, first aid these were the wild duck flight days, ters, the American Red Cross Is applying effectually the lessons learned shed citizenry,

The task of the Red Cross Public Health nurse in the 1,240 nursing servcountry instructing their communities in health essentials and disease prevention is demonstrating the possibilities of human betterment and the great benefits of enlightenment.

During the last year 313 new public health nursing services were establishad by Red Cross Chapters, and several hundred services so convincingly provallotted to provide women to prepare themselves for public nursing. The home visits made by the 1,240 nurses inspected by these nurses and where defects were found advised examina-tion by physicians. In rural communities this service has made a very marked advance and has won thousands of converts to approved methods of disease prevention.

instruction, which fits the student in methods of proper care where illness is not so serious as to require professervice, the Red Cross conducted 3.884 classes during the last year. enrolled 2,356 instructors, 93,448 students and issued 42,656 certificates.

On June 30, 1922, nutrition service embraced 1,199 classes, with a total of 27,523 children and 2,589 enrolled dietitians. Seventy-eight food selection classes graduated 733 who received Red Cross certificates. In general health activities Red Cross Chapters maintained 377 health centers, serving as many communities, provided 38,751 health lectures for large audiences ev erywhere, while clinics numbered over Corrected Daily, More Apt. "When you see a sign in front of gasoline filling station reading Tested Daily' it may not mean much, Frank W. Tucker, chief of state weights and measures inspector, says: "The measuring pumps may be tested daily, but what the consumer wishes to know is whether they are corrected daily. Not long ago I found a pump that was shorting motorists man gallons a day, and there was that sign up in front. I told them they better change it to 'Corrected Daily' and make sure they live up to it." Tucker said he finds many pumps are short measures, and estimated that motorists pay for "hundreds of thou sands of gallons they never burn up."

A WISE MAN of long ago said: "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches."

> THE good name of this bank was not built in a day, but by years of constant, vigilant effort, and with SAFETY as a watchword. A banking business is founded upon confidence, and confidence is based upon facts and truth. For almost thirty years this institution has been a safe depository for its patrons, and has always been in a position to meet the legitimate needs of borrowers. It is still a friend in need and a friend in DEED.

The great variety of positions held by those who visit headquarters is said by the authoritles to be ample proof that the old born to soldiering has been "knocked man may be anything from an auditor to an oil salesman and yet have equal chance for success in the military profession, provided he has the neces mental, moral and physical qualifica-

Strong!" Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. P. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and oegan to surer some mounts ago with womanly troubles, and I was atraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, servous feeling, I began to try medicines as I began to try m
